George (Geordie) Easterbrook graduated from Wake Forest University in 2012 with a Bachelor of the Arts in History and a Minor in Middle East & Southeast Asia Studies. Once completed, he moved to the Washington, DC Metro area where he's remained for the past 5 years.

Geordie began his career working on Capitol Hill supporting multiple Members of Congress, and managed national campaign efforts in his home town of Washingtonville, NY. Since then he's worked for the U.S. Chamber of Commerce on their Corporate Citizens Center and Middle East and Turkey divisions. There, Geordie aided in the successful launch of the U.S. Chamber's Middle East Commercial Center (MECC) which was created to drive intraregional trade, and to develop business relationships throughout the region. In the summer of 2014, Geordie got his first taste of the Commercial Real Estate world when he worked as an Administrative Assistant on Cushman & Wakefield's Washington, DC Retail team, and his passion for CRE was born. Shortly thereafter, Geordie worked for CBRE on the United States Postal Service account as a Transaction Specialist where he helped manage USPS's real estate portfolio consisting of over 280 million square feet of real estate.

Geordie Easterbrook is driven by a hunger for the business, and understands the importance of strong customer service. He is a licensed Salesperson in Virginia.
