

Todd M. Bernstein (Bio)

Originally from Potomac, MD., Todd Bernstein grew up with a passion for Real Estate. He worked in the Sales and Fitness industry part-time, while earning a degree in Sports Management & Business at High Point University in North Carolina. Todd relocated to South Florida where he obtained his Real Estate License.

From sales, Todd was drawn to Property Management. Fifteen years of experience in this field gave him ample experience and exposure to managing several commercial properties, dealing with Brokers, Tenants, City Commissioners, and Contractors.

“I’ve worked with several Brokers in the past and none have impressed me more than the incredibly thorough work and professionalism that I have experienced with Thur & Associates...and I am very Grateful to become an addition to their amazing team.”
